4-H Zoo Snooze

March 29, 2013

Come spend the night at the OKC Zoo and learn about animal camouflage and how camouflage is used in many people’s careers. Later that night we will venture outdoors for a night hike through the zoo. The hike will be followed by some social time and activities.

In the morning we will slip out for an early tour while the animals are active and having breakfast. The rest of the day is yours to spend at the zoo. Make plans today, it’s sure to be a “Wild” time!

Registration is first come/first serve basis.

Registration forms and more information available online at http://oklahoma4h.okstate.edu/events/animal.htm

Cost - $32.00 4-H youth ages (9-19) and $17.00 adults

Cost includes educational program, lodging at the zoo, donuts and juice in the morning and full day zoo admission.
