

2008 State 4-H Horse Volunteer-Leader Conference
Saturday, January 19th
9 am to 4 pm
OSU Campus, Stillwater

Certified 4-H Volunteer, Parent, Support or Resource Person for 4-H Horse Activities?

Wanting to know more about the horse project?

Wanting to improve your ability to teach and develop youth?

Then make plans to attend the 2008 State 4-H Horse Volunteer-Leader Conference!

The conference is offered to adults that work with youth in horse activities associated with Oklahoma 4-H.

Presenters include State Extension Specialists, County Extension Educators and 4-H Volunteer Leaders.

TOPICS

'True Colors™, Personality / Temperament Assessment: Easy and entertaining way to begin understanding yourself and others. Identifying your "character" becomes an invaluable tool for enjoying success at work, with family, and more importantly being a successful 4-H volunteer.

What's On for 2008: Newly developed Horsemanship Levels Skills Youth Curriculum will be introduced, dates and activity guidelines for out-of-county horse activities will be overviewed.

Trail Riding: The 'behind the scenes' work that goes on for making the annual Family Horse Camp a success. Develop a checklist to make a local recreational riding activity a success.

Horseless?: Project activities that promote communication skill development. Highlighting the 'practical problem' format into youth team communication contests.

Develop Horsemanship Skills: One county's use of a levels formatted testing system to better horsemanship skills of their youth.

PRE-REGISTRATION IS A MUST!

Enrollment must be made before noon, Monday, January 14th!

ENROLL BEFORE THEN IF AT ALL POSSIBLE!

Attendance fee of $10.00 is required at check-in. (Fee helps offset a portion of expenses for materials and refreshments.) No need to send fees prior to check-in.

Enroll by calling Lindsey @ 405-744-6058 or emailing lindsey.miller@okstate.edu before enrollment deadline. Enrollees will be contacted by email the week of the conference with information on location to check-in, confirmation of enrollment and other information.

(Conference will be cancelled if minimum enrollment is not met or poor weather, so provide contact information requested below when enrolling. The phone number above is the contact phone for more information.)

If you enroll and need to cancel for some unforeseen reason, please contact us as needs for material prep, set up and refreshments depend on an accurate account of participation.

Email lindsey.miller@okstate.edu or phone Lindsey @ 405-744-6058 to enroll. Provide the following information: Name, contact phone and email, mailing address, county of residence.
Remember: We must have enrollments on or before noon, January 14th!