Teams participating at the State 4-H Horse Quiz Bowl are encouraged to submit 10 to 20 questions for consideration of use for the contest. Questions should be forwarded to the contest supervisor a minimum of 14 days prior to competition. Procedures of Play for both Halves

1. Each match will be divided into halves, with the division based on providing equal number of questions per half. The first half of play will be one on one, and the second half will be all play.

2. The moderator reads the questions. If neither team initiates an answer by activating a buzzer within five (5) seconds after the moderator finishes reading a question, there shall be no loss of points or awarding of points to either team. The moderator provides the correct answer and moves to the next question.

3. If a buzzer is activated while the moderator is reading the question, the moderator will immediately stop reading, and the contestant who activated the buzzer will have five (5) seconds, after having been recognized by the moderator, to begin answering the question.

4. Repetition of the question by the contestant shall not be considered the initiation of an answer. It shall be the responsibility of the moderator and the referee judges to determine if an actual answer has been started within the 5-second period.

5. If an answer is incorrect, a penalty is assessed and the moderator provides the correct answer and moves to the next question.

6. If a buzzer is activated and no answer is given within the 5-second period, a penalty is assessed; the moderator provides the correct answer and moves to the next question.

7. If an answer was not clearly heard, the contestant may be asked to repeat their answer.

8. If the question was read to completion, and the answer given is different than the one expected, if it is technically or logically correct, the judges may accept the answer. The judges may request the contestant to be more specific or clarify their answer.

9. If the question was interrupted, the judges cannot ask for any kind of clarification. The answer is either correct or incorrect according to the way the question was written. All answers given must be correct for the way the question was written. An answer may be correct for a portion heard of a question that was interrupted, but wrong for the way the question was written. The judges may not ask for clarification of answers, and the answer will be counted as a wrong answer. If the answer is correct for the way the question was written, it will be accepted.
10. There should be no conferring between contestants except in the allotted time period of a bonus question. Any conferring (talking) during the time a question is read or answer is being given may be ruled as a response from an ineligible person.

11. Time Allowed:
- To start a response to a question: 5 seconds
- To start answer after acknowledgement: 5 seconds
- For team to confer on a bonus question: 10 seconds

12. The team captain may call for a time out to seat an alternate, to clarify a rule or check the score. Time outs may be called only after a question has been answered and before the next question starts.

Procedure for First Half: One-on-One Competition
1. The moderator shall indicate clearly the start of one-on-one play.
2. During the one-on-one competition, only one member of each team will be eligible to respond to a question. This eligibility will rotate with each question, beginning with the number 1 player on each team, and passing to the number 2, 3 and 4 contestants of each team, respectively, until all the remaining questions have been asked. Each team member should have the opportunity to respond to the same number of questions; that is, the number of questions asked during one-on-one play should be evenly divisible by four.
3. To start the contest, teams are assembled and seated at their respective panels, and each contestant is given time to check the equipment. A team captain is designated, normally to be seated nearest the moderator.
4. The moderator should indicate, prior to the reading of each question, which two contestants are eligible to respond.
5. There will be no bonus questions asked during the one-on-one period.
6. If both contestants to whom a question is addressed fail to signal intent to answer within the 5-second time limit, neither contestant nor team shall lose or gain any points. The moderator shall move to the next question, addressing it to the next eligible players.
7. A correct response awards two (2) points to the individual and team.
8. An incorrect response takes 1 point (-1) from the individual and team.
9. If any contestant other than the two designated contestants responds that individual and his/her team will lose two (-2) points.
10. If any contestant responds more than twice to questions directed to other contestants, the team’s alternate shall replace them at the panel. If no alternate is available, the team will play the remainder of the match with less than a full team, and all questions normally addressed to the eliminated contestant will be addressed only to the opposing contestant.
11. If a question is not answered or answered incorrectly, the moderator provides the correct answer, and moves to the next eligible players for the next question.

Procedures for Second Half: All Play Competition
1. During the second half of the match, all seated contestants are eligible to respond to all play questions. Some all play questions will have a bonus attached to them. The moderator should announce before the reading of the all play question as to whether or not a bonus question is attached. The bonus question is offered to the team who answers the all play question correctly.
2. All play questions are worth one (1) point.
3. Incorrect answers results in a one-point deduction (-1) for the contestant and team.
4. If an all play question is not answered or answered incorrectly, the moderator provides the correct answer, and moves on to the next question.
5. If a member of a team activates a buzzer and an answer has not been started within the 5-second allowable time, there will be an appropriate 1 point penalty imposed against the team and the contestant activating the buzzer.
6. If an all play question is answered correctly, the team is given an opportunity to answer a bonus question. Bonus Questions are worth three (3) points. Incomplete or incorrect answers to bonus questions result in no points or penalty (0). No partial credit will be given. Other team is not allowed a chance at that bonus question.

7. When given a bonus question, the team should allow the moderator to read the complete question. The team will be given ten (10) seconds to confer. The moderator will call time at the end of the ten seconds. The team captain or designee must then start giving the required number of answers within five (5) seconds.
